

Fraser Health General Safety Orientation for Contractors

The Fraser Health General Contractor Safety Orientation video provides general information about the Fraser Health Contractor Safety Program, hazards unique to health care, and Fraser Health safety systems.

All contractors, their employees and sub-contractors must watch this 9-minute video orientation prior to performing any services or work at Fraser Health sites.

Video Outline: Fraser Health General Safety Orientation for Contractors

1. Introduction to Fraser Health
2. Fraser Health Contractor Safety Program Overview
3. Hazards Unique to Health Care
4. Working Safely in a Health Care environment
 - Keeping People Safe
 - Site Emergency Procedures/Personal Conduct
5. Hazard and Incident Reporting

Orientation Record

Fraser Health does not track completion of the Fraser Health General Safety Orientation for Contractors video, but as part of due diligence, may request a record of completion from the contractor.

