

fraserhealth Activities Not a Function of Health Care Support Workers in Long-term Care and Assisted Living

This document is intended to provide examples of activities that are not a function of Health Care Support Workers (HCSWs) in Long Term Care homes (LTC) and Assisted Living (AL).

Note: The intended audiences for this document are HCSWs. In this document a person who lives in LTC or AL is referred to as a resident.

The table below outlines examples of activities that are not a function of HCSWs from when residents move in to the care home to the time they move out.

	Activities Not a Function of HCSWs
1. Move in (Admission)	 Perform assessment such as take blood pressure, temperature, pulse or respirations, height or weight Create or modify the resident care plan Document in the resident chart Sign or witness any forms for families and/or residents Assist with bathing, showering or bed bath Assist with dressing or undressing Assist with transferring with or without a lift Assist with toileting
2. Infection Prevention and Controls	 Teach others donning and doffing of personal protective equipment (PPE) Preform enhanced cleaning
3. Equipment & Linen	 Apply, turn on, adjust, turn off or remove oxygen Take vital signs Change linen for occupied bed
4. Physical Environment	 Move residents' personal belongings without permission Enter a residents' room if personal protective equipment (PPE) is required without oversight from a supporting staff member
5. Hydration and Nutrition	Assist with eating or feeding residentsThicken fluids for residents
6. Mobility	 Assist residents with individualized exercise programs Assist residents with individualized walking programs Direct or supervise, exercises that require hands on assistance Transfer with or without a mechanical aid

fraserhealth Activities Not a Function of Health Care Support Workers in Long-term Care and Assisted Living

		•
	X Reposition in be	Reposition in bed or wheelchair with or without a mechanical aid Direct,
	supervise exercis	supervise exercises that require hands on assistance
7. Psychological	X Any request that	is clinical or direct care
Support	X Any request that	requires hands on care
8. Visitation	X Book visits
	X Provide clinical in	nformation to residents, family or other visitors
9. Communication	X Take phone calls	from physicians, nurse practitioners, lab or pharmacy
	Perform tasks fo	r residents not listed on the plan of care
	X Perform tasks wi	thout oversight from a supporting staff member
10. Move Out	X Assist with dress	ing or undressing
	X Assist with trans	ferring with or without a lift
(Discharge)	X Assist with toilet	ing
	X Document in the	resident chart
	X Sign or witness a	ny forms for families and/or residents		