

Fraser Health Research Review

WHAT WE DID IN 2022-2023

www.fraserhealth.ca/research

Stats and Facts

1850%
return on investment

$4.6M
in new external research funding

28%
increase in FH PI led studies (vs. externally led)

81%
more efficient time to Letter of Authorization

188
FH authored publications

43
evaluation projects supported

44
patient-oriented research projects with patients as partners

Patient Experience

- ✓ 10 access and flow
- ✓ 21 cultural safety and humility & EDI
- ✓ 4 health service patient experience
- ✓ 1 advanced care planning
- ✓ 3 transitions in care

Healthy People and Communities

- ✓ 65 COVID-19, vaccine & immunization
- ✓ 23 Long-term care and assisted living
- ✓ 19 opioid, overdose & harm reduction
- ✓ 1 climate change

Create Value

- ✓ 17 virtual health
- ✓ 1 cost-effectiveness

Provider Experience

- ✓ 14 health service provider experience
- ✓ 7 workplace health
- ✓ 9 education
- ✓ 11 violence prevention & safety

fraserhealth

Dr. Steven Reynolds

Health Professional-Investigator winner

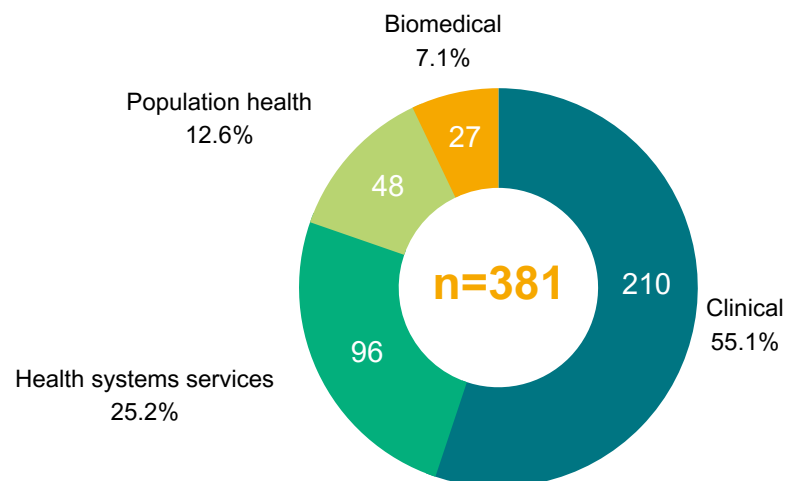

Canadian Foundation for Innovation

eligibility confirmed

FH Writes Repository

launched

Active Studies by CIHR Pillars

Department of Evaluation and Research Services

Research is care and care is research.

Fraser Centre