

Bringing Indigenous Culture to your Birth Experience at Surrey Memorial Hospital

If you would like to connect with the Indigenous maternal liaison,

Please call the referral line:
1-877-580-5342

For general inquiries please email:
IML@fraserhealth.ca

This position is funded by the Surrey Hospitals Foundation

An Indigenous maternal liaison can:

- Connect you with a birth keeper (doula) for support in pregnancy and delivery.
- Support you in navigating maternal health and cultural services.
- Connect you with an Elder.
- Advocate for your choices and decisions with hospital care providers.
- Connect you to culturally appropriate community services.
- Help make space for culture and ceremony in the hospital, Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) and delivery room.
- Provide information on First Nations Health Benefits program and Métis Nation British Columbia supports.

This position is funded by the Surrey Hospitals Foundation