

Skin & Wound Education

What's Happening?

In-person Skin & Wound Care classes are restarting in the Fall 2023. Module 1 – Basic Prevention and Management of Skin Breakdown Full day classes are posted on Learning Hub for the following dates:

Sept 20th 2023 – Chilliwack Hospital, Chilliwack
Oct 19th 2023 –Tabor Home, Abbotsford
Nov 22nd 2023 – Queens park Care Center, New Westminster
Dec 7th 2023 Clayton Heights, Surrey

Topics include: the interdisciplinary team approach in skin/wound care, common risk factors for skin breakdown, factors that influence wound healing, the staging of Pressure injuries, and more.

Who Should Attend?

Nursing staff (RN, RPN, and LPN) who are responsible for providing direct care or supporting frontline staff with prevention, skin and wound care. We recommend staff attend every 3 years to keep current with best practice.

Student Nurses completing clinical preceptorships and Assisted Living nurses are welcome to attend, if space permits.

How do I register?

Classes are available for registration on Learning HUB Course #11660 here:

Long-Term Care Skin & Wound Module 1 - Basic Prevention & Management of Skin Breakdown

I have more questions, who can I contact?

Questions may be directed to the Regional Wound Care Clinicians: Tanya French at tanya.french@fraserhealth.ca; Kim Lemond at kim.lemond@fraserhealth or Kristen Avery-Girard at Kristen.Avery-Girard@fraserhealth.ca