

Aging Matters

SAVE THE DATE!

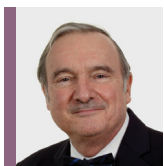

West Coast Conference on Aging April 21 and 22, 2023

Save the Date!

Join colleagues and an expert faculty as we discuss research, initiatives, and policy changes including aging in the ‘right’ place.

The two day program includes plenary sessions and options for concurrent sessions that provide opportunities to build broader expertise and interdisciplinary connections on Aging and long term care. We will share narratives that underpin dignity and respect and guide person-centred care.

CONFERENCE FACULTY INCLUDES:

Serge Gauthier, C.M., C.Q., MD, FRCPC
Professor Serge Gauthier
Professor Emeritus in Neurology and Psychiatry
Academic Co-Lead, Dementia Education Program,
McGill University

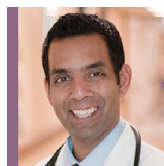

David Conn, MD, CM, FRCPC
Vice-President, Education, Inaugural Director,
Centre for Education and Knowledge Exchange
in Aging at Baycrest, Toronto
Co-chair of the Canadian Coalition for Seniors’
Mental Health

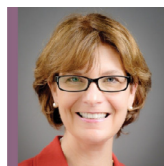

Eli Puterman, PhD
Assistant Professor, Canada Research Chair in Physical Activity and Health
Michael Smith Foundation for Health Research Scholar
Faculty of Education, School of Kinesiology
University of British Columbia

Janet Kow, MD, MEd, FRCPC
Senior Medical Director, Acute Care
Providence Health Care
Division Head, Geriatric Medicine
University of British Columbia

Samir Sinha, MD, DPhil, FRCPC, AGSF
Director of Geriatrics, Mount Sinai and the University
Health Network (UHN) Hospitals
Chair of the Technical Committee for the HSO
National Long-Term Care Services Standards

Isobel Mackenzie,
Seniors Advocate BC
Isobel Mackenzie was appointed B.C.’s first Seniors Advocate in 2014. She is a strong voice for seniors, addressing a wide range of system-wide issues affecting their well-being.

Davidicus Wong, MD
Family Physician, PrimeCare Medical Centre, Burnaby
President, Canadian Society of Clinical Hypnosis (BC Division)
Clinical Assistant Professor, Dept of Family Practice, Faculty of Medicine, UBC

Mark Blandford
President and CEO, Providence Living
VP Seniors Care, Clinical and Operations
Providence Health Care