

From one social gathering ...

Based on real-world Fraser Health data

Day one.

A small group of friends and family go out together to socialize.

Day two to ten.

In the coming days, the entire group tests positive for COVID-19.

Day eleven to twelve.

Many of the group's close contacts also test positive for COVID-19.

Health care worker tests positive.

Extended family member tests positive.

Couple expecting new baby test positive.

Family living in a multi-unit rental property test positive.

Elderly neighbours test positive.

8

test positive for COVID-19 after the social outing or coming into close contact with those who had.

12

needed to self-isolate, unable to go to work or to school.

fraserhealth

Better health. Best in health care.