

appearance

Better health. Best in health care.
Declutter Review Tool
Name of Facility:Unit/Neighbourho	od:		_		Date Audit Completed: Auditor
Suggested frequency: Every 6 months or at least once du	ring ou	ıtbreak	(S
Room Type	Yes	No	N/A	Deficiency Noted
Resident Care Rooms
Resident care rooms have a clean orderly appearance
If Resident is on Additonal Precautions, PPE Isolation cart/holder is located outside resident room or inside the anteroom
Dirty laundry hamper is located near the exit of the room Dirty laundry hamper is less than ¾ full Hands free garbage bin is located in room near exit
There are only resident specific supplies stored in the room with no overstocking in room (review linens, incontinent pads, and dressing/IV supplies) Room is clear of excessive equipment and furniture in order to facilitate safe care and effective housekeeping Furniture is cleanable (non-porous, non-fabric) and free of tears/holes
Hand Hygiene Sinks
Sinks have a clean orderly appearance Hand hygiene sinks are dedicated for hand hygiene only Hand hygiene sinks are not used for decanting of fluids, cleaning of medical devices Hallways Hallways have a clean orderly appearance and free of clutter (resident equipment, mobility aids) Linen carts and unused equipment are stored in alcoves or equipment storage rooms Hallway is clear of medication carts Hallway is clear of dressing/IV carts Clean/Sterile Supply Storage/Clean Utility Room Room has restricted access The clean/sterile supply storage has a clean orderly

There is no soiled/dirty items stored in this room There is a separation of clean/sterile supplies from clean rehab equipment (e.g. splints/physio equipment) and other patient care equipment There is a process to label clean equipment after it is reprocessed (e.g. Green Means Clean tape)
The clean/sterile supply storage is clear of corrugated cardboard Room is clear of personal items, unused equipment and furniture, etc.
rumture, etc.
Soiled Utility Rooms
The soiled utility rooms have a clean orderly appearance Dirty laundry is enclosed Dirty laundry hamper less than ¾ full Garbage and soiled linen is removed frequently to minimize clutter Garbage containers in the soiled utility room are covered Nurses' Stations
The Nurses' Station has a clean orderly appearance Charts not in use are stored in a chart management system such as a rack Counters are clear from extra office supplies Station is clear of food. If water bottles are allowed, there is a designated space away from work activities and water labelled with the staff member's name.
Station is clear of personal staff items Medication Room
The Medication Room storage has a clean orderly appearance
Medications are in their appropriate storage bins Counter is clear of used equipment (e.g. multiuse vials, syringe packaging)
Medication room is clear of food and drink
Tub/Shower Rooms
The tub/shower room has a clean orderly appearance Resident specific personal care items, if stored in this room, are labelled, separated and enclosed Room is not used for storage of clean linens Any laundry bin stored in this room does not obstruct resident care, mobility, etc.
•

When not in use, the tub/shower room is not used to store resident equipment such as walkers, wheelchairs, commodes
Resident Lounges
Resident lounges have a clean orderly appearance During outbreaks, rooms are free from books, puzzles, magazines, and newspapers There is a process and cleaning schedule for any recreational items available in the rooms (e.g. dumbells, ball)
Kitchenettes
During outbreaks, the kitchenette is closed and signs are posted Food is not stored on the counter Sink is clear of soiled items
The inside of the fridge has a clean orderly appearance
The food in the fridge is labeled with the Resident name and date of storage Staff nourishment centres have a clean orderly
appearance
There is cleaning schedule for fridges, ice-machines, and coffee makers		